

第九届中国（上海）国际粉体工业/散装技术展览会暨会议
9th International Powder/Bulk Conference & Exhibition

Join IPB-meet the market in China

Following the rapid development of high technology and new material industries in China, the demand for powder and bulk technologies and applications is constantly growing.

IPB is the only international trade fair in the field of powder, granule and bulk solids technology held by the Chinese Society of Particuology and supported by the POWTECH, Germany, which is the world's leading powder/bulk exhibition.

IPB focuses on the latest products and its supporting programs present the new technologies in fields such as: particle preparation, grading, dispersion, surface modification, separation, storage, transportation, packaging, mixing, granulation and particle measurement and many others.

Product group

- Basic mechanical processing technologies
Size reduction, mixing, separating, screening, filtering, drying of powders and bulk solids
- Plant engineering and processing components
Dosing, emptying, conveying, transporting, storage, vacuum plants, pipe technology, recycling plants, weighing, packaging & filling
- Particle analysis and characterization
Particle analysis, sampling equipment, laboratory instrument
- Nano particle technologies
- Measurement and control
Displays, flow meters, pressure gauges, level indicators, process controls
- Safety and environmental technologies
Industrial fire protection, electrical explosion protection, non-electrical explosion protection, process safety, emission protection, workplace safety
- Services
Engineering offices, research institutes, universities and technical publications
